

From the city to the rainforest, this South American adventure offers colourful awe-inspiring landscapes and delivers the magical Iguassu Falls.

DAY 1 – RIO DE JANEIRO TO IGUASSU

There's no denying you've arrived in Rio when you are greeted by one of the 'Seven Wonders of the Modern World', Christ the Redeemer on Corcovado. And what better place to see it than 2,300 feet above the city? A cogwheel train will climb through the Tijuca Rainforest reaching the top of Corcovado Mountain to give you a spectacular view of the whole city. After lunch, you'll travel to the airport for an internal flight to Iguassu and an overnight stay with dinner at the only hotel located within the Brazilian National Park - Hotel Das Cataratas. A former Portuguese-colonial residence, this classic and luxurious hotel is redolent with the spirit of adventure and exploration.

DAY 2 – IGUASSU FALLS

After breakfast, you'll set out on a journey of two halves visiting the largest waterfalls in the world. Begin with the Brazilian side of the falls, which offer spectacular panoramic views. Your guide will lead you on a walking tour through the National Park to a cat-walk, an arm's length from the falls. You may like to climb a 115 ft.-wooden staircase to observe the falls from the top. The area is home to a wide array of rare birds such as the macaw, toucan, parrot, as well as monkeys, armadillos and jaguars. The falls are one of the most impressive sights in the world, with a breath-taking 275 cascades spread across a gulf of nearly two miles. Continue to the Argentine side of the National Park and be prepared for a welcome refreshing spray that rises from the falls. Enjoy lunch at the El Fortin restaurant before heading to the Nature Interpretation Centre and boarding the quiet natural gas-powered Jungle Train service to the most impressive viewpoint of the Falls, the Devil's Throat. Walk the Green Trail to Cataratas, the departure point for the Upper trails. From the upper circuit and the up-river cascades you will have a chance to see as much of the Argentine side of the Falls as possible. After a full day of exploring this incredible area, return to your hotel for dinner and some well-earned rest.

DAY 3 – IGUASSU TO MONTEVIDEO

After breakfast, you'll check out of your hotel and take a flight to Montevideo via a connecting flight at Buenos Aires. A box luncheon will be provided. Upon arrival at Montevideo your local host will meet you and transfer you to your hotel, the Sofitel Montevideo for an overnight stay in a luxury room. Dinner will be served at the hotel.

DAY 4 – MONTEVIDEO AND WINERY TOUR

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel before you check-out and take a city tour of Montevideo en route to the Varela Zarranz Winery. The Varela Zarranz family first became involved with the winery business in 1933 acquiring, a decade later, the vineyard manor built in 1888 by Diego Pons, one of the Uruguayan wine making pioneers. The third generation of this family presently leads the enterprise and resident enologists will guide you along the process of creation of the wine, spreading the enthusiasm and the love they feel for their exciting task. Enjoy tasting four of the winery's best wines and one sparkling wine in the old cellar, accompanied by delicious tables of cheese and cold cuts. After the wine tasting, enjoy a traditional lunch before heading back to Montevideo to rejoin Queen Victoria.

Note: Order of the sites may vary. The booking deadline for this overland is 4th December. Any bookings after this time will be on a request basis only. There is a strict minimum and maximum participation. Please ensure you book the correct tour code for the accommodation you require (Double = GIG806. Single = GIG807). Prices shown on your record of shore excursions are per person, not per room. Once your booking is confirmed, any cancellation made after bookings close will incur a 100% cancellation fee. This tour will depart from Rio on 2nd February and return in Montevideo on 5th February. Please check your embarkation/disembarkation dates carefully before booking this overland. Flight times and further details will be advised on board and the hotels listed are subject to change. Be prepared for early morning starts, lengthy days, climatic changes and delays at airports. This is an inclusive excursion programme. No refunds will be given for any unused portion.

The fare includes: transport by coach, economy class air travel, sightseeing and entrances as described, meals as stated, and hotel accommodation. One glass of house wine will be included with lunch and evening meals. Those wishing to order alternative beverages will be charged separately.

The fare does not include: items of a personal nature such as refreshments, telephone calls, laundry, gratuities, room service, fees for doctor's visits and prescriptions/medication and travel insurance. Additional activities offered at Iguassu are not inclusive on this excursion. As this overland tour involves leaving the ship and re-joining in another port or country, your visa requirements may vary dependent on your nationality and the duration of your stay. It is your responsibility to ensure you are in receipt of the correct documentation, we recommend you check on the applicable government website for visa and entry requirements. Some nationals may be required to pay a reciprocity fee to enter Argentina. If applicable, the Reciprocity fee must be paid online in advance of your arrival. Enter the web site www.migraciones.gov.ar or www.provinciapagos.com.ar of Provincia Pagos and register to start the process. The Yellow Fever vaccination is recommended for visiting the falls, please check with your doctor prior to travelling.

What to pack: please remember your passport and any medication you require. Luggage limit is one case per person with a maximum weight of 15kg. Comfortable walking shoes, waterproof clothing, sun lotion and insect repellent are recommended.