

Make the most of your visit to Japan. Take in the incredible sights of Kyoto, the bustling capital of Tokyo and the city of Kagoshima.

DAY 1 – KYOTO, overnight in Tokyo

The ancient city of Kyoto is graced with an abundance of temples, shrines and serene gardens. One of the highlights of the region is the Kinkakuji Temple, also known as the Golden Pavilion. Each of its three storeys represents a different architectural style and the gold leaf reflects beautifully in the pond below (exterior visit). Enjoy a break for a Western style luncheon, before continuing on to the impressive Kodai-ji Temple, a designated historic site and place of scenic beauty. Kodai-ji features richly decorated interiors and beautiful Zen gardens. Enjoy the sights and atmosphere of this special location, before heading to Kyoto Station to board the Bullet Train, which will transport you at 170 miles an hour from Kyoto to Japan's capital city, Tokyo in just 2½ hours. Upon arrival in Tokyo, check into the Hotel New Otani Tokyo and indulge in a wonderful Teppanyaki dinner.

DAY 2 – TOKYO, overnight in Tokyo

After breakfast enjoy a full tour of the city's highlights. Visit the Meiji Jingu Shrine, a large park dedicated to Emperor Meiji, who saw the transformation of this country from a medieval to a modern state. It was during his reign (1868–1912) that Edo became Japan's new capital and was renamed Tokyo. Enter the Shrine through the 40-foot-high Torii gate, one of the largest in Japan. After luncheon, you'll visit the Tokyo Skytree, a new landmark of the city that stands at over 2,000 feet high. It is the tallest building in Japan and the second tallest structure in the world at the time of its completion. Take the elevator to the observation deck for a stunning panoramic view of Tokyo. You'll make your way to Asakusa to see one of Tokyo's most popular places of pilgrimage, the Sensoji Temple. This ancient Temple features two great gates and rows of traditional family shops and stalls, called Nakamise, a major symbol of old Tokyo. Enjoy a buffet dinner in the hotel's 360 degree revolving restaurant.

DAY 3 – KAGOSHIMA

After breakfast, depart for the airport and board your flight to Kagoshima. Upon arrival in Kagoshima, enjoy luncheon at a local restaurant. Visit the Iso Garden, which is the city's principal attraction. The 21st Shimazu lord created the pond within the Garden in order to hold poem parties. Take a leisurely stroll and appreciate the beauty of the garden and the 'borrowed scenery' of Kinko Bay and Mount Sakurajima smoking in the background. Pass by Terukuni Shrine, before arriving at Shiroyama Observation Deck, where you can enjoy spectacular views over the city. Afterwards, you'll take a brief drive to re-join the ship in the port of Kagoshima.
