A grand celebration with Cunard.

Few settings compare to a magnificent Cunard ocean liner for timeless romance. Playing host to love stories throughout the ages – from royalty to movie stars, from honeymooners to war brides, Cunard is delighted to welcome couples wishing to celebrate another special occasion - an unforgettable wedding day.

Imagine your very own Champagne soirée, dining in some of the finest restaurants at sea, dancing in the grandest ballrooms afloat, indulgent spa treatments and sunset strolls around the decks of a legendary Cunard Queen. Brides escorted by White Star bellmen, romantic ceremonies conducted by the ship's Captain and a beautifully appointed ceremony venue come together with a superb variety of wedding menus, extensive wine lists and a host of finishing touches.

Your dedicated on board Wedding Coordinator and Cunard's reputation for impeccable service ensure a truly memorable occasion.

An enduring legacy of grandeur and elegance.

Step aboard one of our magnificent ships to experience the luxury and excellence which defines Cunard so eloquently. With a trusted history of over 170 years, Queen Mary 2, Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth each uphold Cunard's finest traditions of impeccable service, luxurious accommodation and exquisite dining aboard ships more famous than any others afloat.

Queen Mary 2, the flagship of the Cunard fleet, offers a unique sense of majesty and sophistication where her 14 spacious guest decks offer something for everyone. Queen Victoria's elegant charm and contemporary luxury combine to offer a timeless experience reminiscent of a more refined era. The arrival of our gracious new Cunarder, Queen Elizabeth in October 2010, heralded a new golden age of ocean travel and the advent of three magnificent liners sailing under the Cunard flag.

The grandeur of the triple height public rooms, the beautiful ballrooms, your elegantly appointed stateroom or suite and some of the finest restaurants at sea all combine to provide the perfect modern day stage for Your Royal Ceremony at Sea.

From your dedicated Wedding Coordinator and Officers on board to your Stateroom Steward or private Butler, every member of the Cunard team are there to ensure you receive an outstanding and distinctly Cunard experience so you can relax in the knowledge that every detail of your special day will be taken care of.

Timeless cruises across the world.

The Transatlantic Crossing, steeped in romance and history, was for many decades the only way to travel between two great continents. Today, this iconic voyage still holds a magical allure and Queen Mary 2, the only ship to provide this regular service, offers the perfect combination of marrying Mid-Atlantic followed by a honeymoon in the most exciting city in the world, New York. With a host of choices from sailing one way, both ways or extending your stay in North America, your perfect honeymoon can be tailor-made just for you. For our North American couples, you could explore London or the wonders of Europe before or after your Transatlantic Crossing.

Other options include a European voyage, where the picturesque cities of Venice, Rome or Barcelona, breathtaking views of the Fjords or the historical cities of the Baltic Sea await your arrival. Choose to sail to and from Southampton, fly direct to your chosen location or opt for a twin-centre to extend your honeymoon in your favourite destination. If calm Caribbean seas and a relaxing choice of Caribbean Islands to follow or a far flung array of exciting World Voyage destinations is more to your liking, a selection of Autumn and Winter voyages offer the perfect honeymoon setting to follow your special day with Cunard.

Once you've been married on board, all those anniversaries on the horizon are a perfect excuse to return year after year!

"The best part is, you don't just have the wedding day - you have the rest of the voyage to enjoy and the destination, which for us was New York".

Barry Maloney, married on board Queen Mary 2, April 2012

Your Cunard Wedding Package.

To offer you a uniquely memorable wedding day, we have created a Cunard Wedding package which includes all of the items listed opposite. Queen Elizabeth.

The Admiral's Lounge.

An elegant and intimate lounge perfect for smaller gatherings of 6 people or fewer (including the bridal couple).

The Yacht Club

Named after one of the most popular rooms aboard the legendary QE2, the Yacht Club aboard Queen Elizabeth is a magnificent room with beautiful nautical features and striking panoramic views out to sea.

"It was perfection from the start, from having printed invites – even though we didn't have many guests – to the room which looked spectacular. As soon as I walked in, I saw the beautiful flowers and my bridal bouquet was gorgeous. It was lovely to be escorted from the stateroom by the Bell Boy – as he took my arm, I felt really relaxed."

The finishing touches.

Photography services.

Experiencing your wedding day on board is a magical occasion and our professional on board photographers are there to capture each special moment, forever.

Whatever your preferred wedding photography style, our dedicated team will go above and beyond to create exquisite, bespoke, beautifully intimate images that you will always treasure. From candid shots of your pre-wedding preparations to contemporary or traditional formal images, or even a documentary style reflection of the day's events, you can be sure of our attention to detail and discreet approach throughout.

Wedding packages range from $499 to $1,299 with a wide variety of options to suit every taste and requirement, from wedding albums and CDs of images, to personalised wedding announcements or even a professionally created DVD of your wedding ceremony.

Packages can be booked and paid for on board during your cruise or pre-booked prior to your cruise with a small deposit. Pre-booking allows you to spread the cost of your wedding package before setting sail, or is a great way to have part of your wedding package as a gift from friends and family. For more details, please visit cunard.co.uk/cruise-ships/cunard-experience/special-occasions/

Gift services.

Bridal couples, guests and friends back home can all choose from a delightful collection of gifts - from chocolates, fine wines and Champagnes to sublime spa treatments or cherished souvenirs. Gift certificates are also available for UK guests and can be put towards the cost of the bridal couple's voyage. Full details are available on line at: cunard.co.uk/cruise-ships/cunard-experience/special-occasions/

Your wedding planner.

Choose your voyage destination and wedding date.

Please refer to your Cunard brochure or visit cunard.com to choose your preferred Cunard ship and voyage. Once selected, contact the Cunard Customer Contact Centre who will be able to check availability for both your chosen voyage and wedding date and time. If available, the Personal Cruise Expert will be able to book your voyage and wedding, your booking will then be confirmed and a deposit will be taken. Please note we require a minimum of three months notice to organise your wedding.

The formalities.

Your legal documentation and wedding planning form will be sent to you approximately three months prior to your voyage. Please complete the Notice of Intended Marriage, which enables us to apply for the necessary marriage licence on your behalf. These forms must be returned within 14 days to ensure that the marriage licence is granted and received by the ship in time for your wedding ceremony. If you or your partner have been married previously and are now divorced or widowed, we will require a copy of the final divorce decree or death certificate and deed poll at this time. These must be in English and it is your responsibility to arrange, and pay for, any documentation required to facilitate the marriage to be translated in to English by an approved translator.

We are unable to complete the necessary legal formalities or make detailed arrangements for your wedding until this documentation has been received by us. Shortly afterwards you will be asked to pay the balance of your wedding package and we will arrange to obtain the required marriage licence on your behalf and organise the detailed arrangements for your ceremony.

Choosing your finishing touches.

You will now need to choose your finishing touches, including your wedding music, wedding cake and flowers by completing the requested details on your planning form. The majority of finishing touches are pre-booked, and should be paid for at the time of booking. These can be booked up until 56 days before your voyage. Should you wish to make any changes or add any guests to your booking, please let our Personal Cruise Expert know as soon as possible.

Embarkation day.

Once on board, your Wedding Co-ordinator will arrange a convenient time to meet with you to go over the details of your wedding plan and ensure everything runs smoothly.

“Cunard went above and beyond to make our day special and romantic. Everything had been thought about from the ceremony to the wedding cake presented on a beautiful silver cake stand with decorative knife. We wouldn't have done it on any other ship, everyone should experience Cunard's White Star Service at least once in their lifetime.”

Barry Maloney, married on board
Queen Mary 2, April 2012

Terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions below apply to the Cunard Weddings Programme in addition to the Booking Conditions or Passage Contract, as appropriate (referred to here as "Booking Conditions"), found in the Cunard brochure, which apply to your voyage. In the event of conflict between the two sets, these terms and conditions will prevail over the Booking Conditions. Please ensure that you have read and understood these Terms & Conditions prior to making a booking.

1. Definitions.

In this Contract and unless the context requires otherwise, defined terms are the same as in the Booking Conditions unless a different meaning is given to the defined term here: "Booking Form" means the form which must be completed by Guests wishing to purchase the Cunard Weddings Package; "Contract" means the contract made between Cunard and the Guests relating to the provision of wedding services; "Finishing Touches" means optional goods and services additional to those included in the Cunard Weddings Package; "Guests" means the persons named in the Booking Form; and "the Cunard Weddings Package" means the wedding goods and services, as described in this booklet, to be provided by Cunard for the set fee including the organisation of a wedding ceremony.

2. The Contract.

Guests must read this wedding booklet in conjunction with the relevant Cunard brochure for full details of the voyage. Guests must read the section below on Legal Requirements before making a booking. Cunard is unable to accept bookings for weddings within three months of departure of the relevant voyage. The Cunard Weddings Package is subject to availability and Guests must check whether there is availability to provide the Cunard Weddings Package on the voyage in question with Cunard prior to booking. Wedding venues and Reception venues are subject to availability and Cunard reserve the right to offer an alternative on board venue should your chosen venue be unavailable. Finishing Touches are subject to availability and may usually be booked from approximately three months before departure date. Wedding dates may be provisionally reserved with a non-refundable deposit of 25% of the price of the Cunard Weddings Package for up to 14 days. During this time the Booking Form must be completed and sent back to Cunard. No Contract is formed until payment of the deposit is received by Cunard. Both parties must speak and understand English. Please note that the ceremony will be conducted in English, although if Guests wish, there may be opportunity to include sections in your first language, if not English.

3. Exclusion of Liability.

The recognition of a marriage as valid is a matter of domestic law and, accordingly, the formalities governing a marriage ceremony and the requirements as to capacity to marry vary from country to country (and often from state to state). Set out below is some guidance on the key requirements under the law of England and Wales, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Germany. There is also comment on the law of the United States and Canada. However, this guidance does not constitute legal advice and Guests are strongly recommended to take advice from a specialist matrimonial lawyer in their home country as to whether their marriage under Bermudian law on a Bermudian registered ship will be recognised as valid in their home country. Cunard accepts no liability whatsoever for any failure of the marriage to be recognised in any jurisdiction and the obligation to make all legal enquiries rests exclusively with Guests. Cunard has supplied online a sample copy of the Wedding Certificate Guests will receive once they are married, to take to their local lawyer, in advance of booking the marriage ceremony, to advise them on whether this will be recognised as a valid marriage in their home country. Cunard can also provide apostilled (certified) copies of the Wedding Certificate (issued by the Registrar General in Hamilton, Bermuda after the marriage ceremony) for a small additional charge so that Guests may, if required, apply for a certificate of recognition, or similar, in their home country. Guests are urged to seek advice from a specialist matrimonial lawyer as to the requirements, if any, for registering their marriage. Cunard cannot provide advice on this issue and does not accept any responsibility whatsoever for Guests' inability or failure to register their marriage where necessary in their home country.

4. Legal Requirements.

The Cunard Weddings ceremony is a civil service conducted under Bermudian law. In terms of the formalities for a marriage ceremony undertaken on board a ship to comply with Bermudian law, it must take place on a Bermudian flagged ship sailing on the high seas. The ceremony must be conducted either by the ship's Captain or by the Deputy Captain (if he/she is in command of the vessel at the time of the ceremony). An announcement of the intended wedding must be published in the Bermuda Sun (www.bermudasun.bm). The particulars of the ceremony will be noted in the ship's logbook and this will be filed subsequently with the Registrar General in Hamilton, Bermuda. Provided that Guests provide all information and documentation requested of them within the prescribed time limits, Cunard will ensure that these requirements of Bermudian law are satisfied. Please note that the bridal couple's names, address and telephone numbers will be published online. After the registration of the marriage in Bermuda, the Office of the Registrar General will then send Guests a copy of the Marriage Certificate.

Bermudian law says that the following requirements must be fulfilled by Guests wishing to be married at sea:

- They must not be within prohibited degrees of relationship (i.e. they must not be too closely related by birth or marriage).
- They must both be over 16 years of age.
- If either is under 18 years of age, the consent of a parent or guardian is required. The consent will have to be formalised by a notary public. Guests should take independent advice in this respect and will be personally responsible for ensuring that a notarised consent is available in good time.
- Neither party is suffering from a mental disorder as defined under the Mental Health Act 1968.
- Neither party must knowingly and wilfully agree to marry using a false name or names.
- Neither party must knowingly and wilfully agree to the marriage without the required notice being given of the marriage or without the necessary licence.
- Neither party may be married to another person at the time of the marriage ceremony.
- The marriage must be contracted before a Marriage Officer (the Captain or a Deputy Captain who is in command of the vessel at the time of the ceremony).
- The parties must not be of the same sex.

Domicile.

The recognition of a marriage as valid in other jurisdictions depends partly also on whether or not the law of the Guest's domicile has been satisfied. For this, Guests are strongly recommended to take legal advice on the law of the country of domicile of each of them before the booking is made to ensure that the marriage will be compliant.

Under English Law (and, typically, in other common law jurisdictions) a person is domiciled in the country which he regards as his permanent home. It is, thus possible for a person to be resident in one country and domiciled in another. However, in civil law jurisdictions, domicile simply means where a person lives. Guests should also take advice from a specialist lawyer on the question of where they are domiciled in the event that they are uncertain. As provided at clause 3 above, Cunard accepts no liability whatsoever for any failure of the marriage to be valid as a result of one or both of the Guests' failure to ensure their compliance with the law of the country in which they are domiciled.

Validity in England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

A marriage ceremony conducted in accordance with the requirements of Bermudian law in a ship on the high seas will be recognised as valid in England, Wales and Northern Ireland provided that both Guests also comply with the requirements of the law of the country in which they are domiciled relating to their capacity to marry. In England and Wales, these requirements are:

- The parties must be respectively male and female.
- The parties must not be within prohibited degrees of relationship (i.e. they must not be too closely related by birth or marriage).
- The parties must both be a minimum of 16 years of age.
- If either party is under 18 years of age the consent of a parent or guardian will be required.
- Each party must be capable of giving valid consent to the marriage (consent can be invalidated by, for example, the giving of a false name, address or description, duress, insanity or intoxication of either party to the marriage).
- Neither party must be married to another person at the time of the marriage ceremony or have registered a Civil Partnership which has not been dissolved.

A marriage will also be recognised as valid in England and Wales so long as all the above requirements have been complied with, even if they are not domiciled in England and Wales. As stated above, it is the exclusive responsibility of the Guests to ensure they comply with the requirements of the law of their country of domicile if they wish to ensure their marriage will be recognised as valid in the UK.

Validity in Scotland.

The rules in relation to the validity of a marriage under Scottish law are the same as for England, Wales and Northern Ireland subject to the following:

- There is no need for the consent of a parent or a guardian where either party is above the age of 16 but below the age of 18 years.
- The prohibited degrees of relationship are slightly different to those in England, Wales and Northern Ireland and Scottish guests should seek separate advice in this area, where appropriate.

Validity in the United States and Canada.

It is intended that residents of the United States and Canada are able to get married on board a Cunard ship and as a general statement, we understand Bermudian law marriages are recognisable in these countries. However, each Guest's circumstances are different and the law on recognition of marriages can vary from state to state. It is therefore very important that before they commit to getting married on board, Guests take local legal advice to check whether their marriage under Bermudian law will be recognised as valid in their home state. Please note the limitations on Cunard's liability in clause 3.

Validity in Germany.

German law is applied to the question of the validity of a marriage where either the bride or groom are German citizens. German law will recognise the validity of the marriage if the requirements comply with Bermudian law in terms of Guests' capacity to marry. German law makes the following stipulations:

- They must be over 18 years old (between 16 and 18 only with the special permission of the Family Court).
- They must be mentally sane when expressing their willingness to marry.
- They must not be too closely related.
- They must not be already married.

After the ceremony it may be advisable for practical reasons to register the Bermudian marriage in Germany, although this is not a strict requirement of German law.

Validity in other countries.

Guests must take local legal advice from a specialist matrimonial lawyer in advance to check whether their marriage under Bermudian law would be recognised as valid in their home country in accordance with clause 3.

5. Prices.

All prices quoted are in US Dollars. Please note that the prices for the Cunard Weddings Package and Finishing Touches in the current price list are correct at the time of going to press. However, we reserve the right to change prices advertised without notice. You can find our latest prices on our website at cunard.com/weddings or call us for details. Once you have booked your Cunard Weddings Package and any Finishing Touches, the price of these will not change.

6. Payment.

Payment is due in respect of the balance of the Cunard Weddings Package and the wedding licence fees four months prior to departure of the voyage. Failure to pay the balance of the Cunard Weddings Package and wedding licence fees by the due date shall entitle Cunard to cancel the booking for the Cunard Weddings Package and retain the 25% deposit by way of a cancellation charge. Guests will be jointly liable for the cost of any booking made. Payment for most Finishing Touches booked in advance is due at the time of booking the Finishing Touches, and no later than 56 days before departure.

Failure to pay for Finishing Touches by the due date shall entitle Cunard to cancel the Finishing Touches. Please note that the fee for the wedding licence is non-refundable unless the wedding is cancelled by Cunard due to Cunard's fault. Failure to pay any other amount by the due date shall entitle Cunard to cancel the booking and to retain an amount by way of a cancellation charge as set out in clause 8.

7. Changes to the wedding by the guest.

Subject always to availability and to payment of any expenses incurred by Cunard as a result, a Guest may change the date of the wedding up to 56 days before the voyage departure date, so long as the request is for a change of date on the same voyage and either the licence issued by the Registry General of Bermuda is valid for that date or a new licence can be obtained. Please note that the licence is valid for three months only from the date of issue. Any requests for a change of the wedding to a different voyage will be considered if received more than four months before the voyage departure date, but the request will be subject to availability and to payment of both an administration charge of $100 and any expenses (such as a charge for a new licence, should one be necessary) incurred by Cunard as a result. Cancellation charges may also be payable for the voyage under the Booking Conditions. After Finishing Touches have been booked, Cunard will try to accommodate any request for changes, but such changes are always at Cunard's discretion and are subject to an administration charge of $20 plus any expenses incurred.

8. Cancellation of the wedding by the guest.

The Guest may cancel the Contract at any time by giving notice in writing to Cunard Customer Contact Centre, Cunard, Carnival House, 100 Harbour Parade, Southampton SO15 1ST, but in that event Cunard shall be entitled to levy a cancellation charge as a percentage of the price of the Cunard

Weddings Package, as appropriate, in accordance with the following scales:

Period within which notice of Cancellation of wedding is received by Cunard	Cancellation charges (percentage of price of Cunard Weddings paid)
From the date of booking of wedding up until and including 120 days before departure	Deposit
119 to 90 days before departure	45% of Cunard Weddings package
89 to 60 days before departure	65% of Cunard Weddings package
59 to 30 days before departure	90% of Cunard Weddings package
29 to 0 days before departure	100% of Cunard Weddings package

For Fly-Cruises, departure day is date of the flight departure

Please note that the costs to Cunard of cancellation of any Finishing Touches booked by the Guest will be payable in addition to the amounts set out above. Cancellation of the Contract does not automatically cancel the voyage contract between Cunard and the Guest. Please see the Booking Conditions for details of cancellation charges applicable in the event that the Guest wishes to cancel the voyage.

9. Changes to the wedding by Cunard.

Cunard reserves the right to alter the time or the day upon which the wedding is to take place on the voyage or to alter wedding arrangements should it become necessary on operational, commercial or other grounds. Due to possible itinerary changes Cunard does not recommend engraving commemorative items with the date of the wedding in advance of the ceremony taking place. Cunard cannot be held liable if engraved items are incorrect as a result of such changes. The ceremony may be performed by the Deputy Captain instead of the Captain, if the Deputy Captain is in command of the vessel at the time of the ceremony.

10. Cancellation of the wedding by Cunard.

Whilst Cunard will do its very best not to cancel the wedding after a booking has been made, it shall nevertheless be entitled at any time to cancel the Contract where this reasonably becomes necessary on operational, commercial or other grounds. Cunard will inform the Guests of any such cancellation as quickly as possible and will make a refund of monies received under the Contract.

If the wedding is cancelled and the reason for the cancellation is not due to force majeure (as defined in the Booking Conditions) or the Guests' breach of the Contract, compensation will also be payable in accordance with the table below.

Period within which notice of Cancellation of wedding is given by Cunard	Compensation per Cunard Weddings Package
Up to and including 120 days before departure	5% credit and $1000
119 to 90 days before departure	10% credit and $1000
89 to 60 days before departure	15% credit and $1000
59 to 30 days before departure	20% credit and $1000
29 to 0 days before departure	30% credit and $1000
Post departure	50% credit and $1000

The value of any credit (which can be used to pay for a Cunard Wedding or voyage) will be calculated by reference to the price paid for the Cunard Weddings Package and may only be used for another booking with Cunard. Any such new booking must be made by no later than 31 December of the year after the date of the original voyage. Cunard will also be entitled to cancel the Contract if it has not been possible to obtain a valid licence from the Registry General of Bermuda for the wedding date. If the failure to obtain a valid licence is due to the fault or delay of the Registry General of Bermuda and there is no fault or delay on the part of the Guest, Cunard will make a refund of monies received under the Contract. Cunard will have no further liability. A caveat may be recorded against an application for a licence where the Registry General of Bermuda receives a written notice from a person stating his name, that the marriage is forbidden and the grounds as to why the marriage should not take place. Guests will be responsible for liaising with the Registry General of Bermuda at the Guests' cost to ensure that any caveat is removed before the marriage can go ahead. Cunard reserves the right to cancel the wedding where, for these reasons, the licence cannot be obtained in time. Cancellation charges for the Contract will then apply. Please note that the provisions above apply to cancellation of the wedding under the Contract only. Please see the Booking Conditions for full details of Guests' rights on alteration and cancellation of voyage bookings both prior to and after departure.

11. Insurance & liability.

Cunard recommends that Guests take out suitable wedding insurance to cover circumstances which may mean they are unable to get married. Please note that the Cunard' travel insurance will not cover Guests for the costs of a cancelled wedding. For claims not involving personal injury or death due to Cunard's negligence, Cunard's liability for improper performance of the Contract shall be limited to a maximum of twice the price which Guests affected paid for the Cunard Weddings Package and Finishing Touches. The information and prices contained in the Cunard Weddings brochures and these Terms and Conditions are correct to the best of Cunard's knowledge as at 17 June 2013 and are subject to change with or without notice. No information provided should be taken as legal advice and the limitations of liability in clause 3 apply to all aspects of the weddings service. Photographs used are for illustrative purposes only.

12. Documentation.

Please note that it is Guests' responsibility to:

- 1) Produce all personal documentation needed for the wedding to take place (e.g. valid passport and where appropriate, copy of decree of divorce, death certificate or deed poll name change certificate).
- 2) Check that documentation issued by or on behalf of Cunard correctly records their personal details. Cunard cannot accept liability for problems caused as a result of inaccuracy (or inconsistency when compared to documents such as the Guest's passport) of personal details on the wedding licence and/or other documentation. Please be aware that such problems can mean the wedding has to be cancelled.
- 3) Obtain and pay for any documentation required to facilitate the marriage, whether such documentation is required at any time by Cunard or the Registry General of Bermuda. Any liaison with the Registry General of Bermuda in relation to the marriage which becomes necessary as a result of a requirement for additional documentation must be undertaken by the Guest, unless Cunard agrees otherwise.
- 4) Obtain and pay for any documentation required to facilitate the marriage to be translated in to English where necessary and by an approved translator.

13. Law and Jurisdiction.

This Contract shall be governed by English law and any dispute arising under it shall be determined exclusively by the courts of England and Wales.
