

Exploring Wines

At Cunard, we have been developing our wine collection for over 185 years.

By sailing the globe, we gather wines from various regions, which enhance our diverse on-board selection.

Over the following pages, we present a collection of more than 150 wines and sake.

Each wine has been selected through an extensive tasting process.

We believe that each wine offers the best-value representation for its region or type. Therefore, you can select any of our wines with confidence in its distinct quality.

If you require assistance with your selection, our team of sommeliers is available to guide you through Cunard's wine offerings.

Laurent-Perrier

Originally founded in 1812, the House of Laurent-Perrier has consistently led the way in champagne innovation.

The Laurent-Perrier portfolio showcases nine distinctive champagnes, including Grand Siècle, which debuted in 1959. This remarkable champagne blends three exceptional years to create the perfect year.

In 2018, Laurent-Perrier celebrated the 50th anniversary of its Cuvée Rosé—the pioneering modern rosé champagne first crafted in 1968. This champagne broke with tradition, establishing innovative cold-maceration winemaking techniques using 100% Pinot Noir grapes rather than blending red and white wine.

The brand's commitment to innovation continues today, demonstrated by the recent introduction of its latest creation, Héritage. This new champagne exemplifies the expertise of Grand Siècle, blending several years from the best Crus of Champagne and incorporating both Chardonnay and Pinot Noir grapes.

Château d'Esclans

Nestled in the scenic hills of Provence, Château d'Esclans has been managed by Sacha Lichine since 2006. Together with Patrick Leon, the former Managing Director of Mouton Rothschild, Sacha set out to create the world's finest rosés, igniting what is now known as the "Rosé Renaissance."

The elevated vineyard of Château d'Esclans is celebrated for its ancient Grenache vines, many of which were planted in the early 20th century. These grapes are hand-picked at dawn and blended with meticulously cultivated Vermentino. The top cuvées, Château d'Esclans, Les Clans, and Garrus, are aged in oak barrels, in which they mature and improve over several years.

The Akashi Sake Brewery

A unique collaboration between Cunard and The Akashi Sake Brewery has culminated in the creation of three bespoke labels of all-natural sakes.

As one of the longest-standing breweries of the region, the Akashi Sake Brewery stands proudly on the shore of Akashi City in Harima, the midwestern part of Hyōgo prefecture, one of Japan's most renowned sake producing regions. Akashi Sake Brewery is a 4th generation family brewery which has been producing hand-crafted sake for over 160 years. The brewery's proximity to the coast and their use of tanks with Japanese cedar wood lids, leads to sea air impacting the flavour of their sakes with a distinct character.

Bottled from a single tank, the Cunard sakes are a labour of love, embodying a true field to bottle philosophy with the finest natural ingredients. The Cunard sakes are granted Harima geographical indication and are brewed with Yamada Nishiki rice, sourced from the Grand Cru towns of Ono and Miki, Yokawa-cho. The Harima region is widely recognised as the birthplace of sake and the land where Yamada Nishiki grows best.
